

Morrish Joins Smart Recruitment in Exeter

Smart Recruitment's well earned reputation as the most dynamic and largest independent recruitment agency on the south coast has resulted in the award winning agency making a senior appointment at their recently launched Exeter office located at 1 Emperor Way, Exeter Business Park.

Exeter born and bred, Kate Morrish joins the company from Office Angels where she worked for just under seven years and was instrumental in their successful office launch. Now employed by Smart Recruitment as Branch Manager at the Exeter branch, Kate is looking forward to putting all her local knowledge and over 15 years of recruitment expertise to practice.

Kate comments, "My role at Smart Recruitment will involve overseeing our Office, Technical and Industrial desks, and with Exeter being the number one region for recruiting temporary positions, we expect to be kept extremely busy. I am thrilled to have joined what I consider to be the best independent recruitment agency along the south coast."

Kate is an award winning employee having achieved performance related accolades reaching a top 10 position repeatedly, the pinnacle of which was a top 3 place in a national incentive programme with her previous employer.

Smart Recruitment is attracting high calibre employees from national agencies giving us real competitive advantage. As a large independent agency we have the best of both worlds. We are able to offer a culture employees enjoy and the high calibre clients and candidates look for. We are enjoying one of our busiest periods and our reputation has never been better or more deserved. It is also a delight to employ a local Exeter girl and support the community as a quality employer in our own right."
